Taking part in this 4 day Teacher Training will enable you to learn how to live your life (and run your own Workshops and Courses) with more confidence and ease. It is designed to be interactive, experiential, flexible, motivational, fun, diverse, inspirational and practical, working within participant's increasingly flexible 'comfort zones', in a flexible, relaxed and safe atmosphere.

It would be useful if participants have read (or have a knowledge of the work of) Louise Hay, Susan Jeffers, Shakti Gawain, Gill Edwards etc.

Jackie has been running Personal Development workshops for many years and assisting and co-presenting on the Louise Hay annual Teacher Training, since around 1997. (See www.Positivelyme.co.uk for more information).

The time came for Jackie to branch out and spread her own brand of magic, by designing a new, more inter-active, participant-led training, incorporating the work of Louise Hay and other leading lights in the personal development world and covering areas outside pure personal development. Whilst the theme of this training is based on participants reaching a deeper level of understanding about themselves (and others), we will also be working on increasing our own personal confidence and improving self-esteem. We will be working as a team, assisting and supporting each other to reach our true potential, in an atmosphere of safety, integrity, laughter and fun.
